New Year Brings Great Slate of Courses for WALL

Happy 2015

The new year is almost here, and WALL classes will soon resume. We hope that all of you have had a wonderful time with family and friends and are looking forward to the great variety of classes that will begin in January. Just a reminder, there is still time to register for a number of classes including: Beekeeping, Chinese Culture, Film Genre Studies, Georgia History, Intermediate Digital Storytelling, Landscape Oil Painting, Let's Sing, Line Dancing, Macon Trailblazing Musicians for the 50's and 60's, Poetry, the Flesh Made Word-An Introductory to Poetry, Shakespeare, Sign Language (only 2 spots left), Tai Chi, Trees and Shrubs, and Women of the Bible. If you have any questions or require additional information concerning these classes, please contact Vince Coughlin at vince.coughlin@cox.net, or Hannah Doan at hdoan@wesleyancollege.edu, or phone her at 478-757-5233.

We were honored to have the Wesleyannes perform an excellent and awe inspiring variety of holiday songs. We hope that you will place this annual event on your calendar for 2015.

Looking forward to seeing you all in January.

Sandy Tharpe
WALL President

WALL is happy to announce that we will be offering several Lunch and Learn series during the year. More information to come in upcoming newsletters.

A big thank you to all who attended the annual Holiday Luncheon honoring the President of Wesleyan College, Ruth Austin Knox. Click here to learn more about this amazing woman, the first Wesleyan alumna to serve as president of the university.
